The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying the Coursera course page for "Programming for Everybody (Getting Started with Python)". The browser's address bar shows the URL: coursera.org/learn/python/lecture/wuMzh/bonus-eben-upton-and-the-raspberry-pi. The page title is "Bonus: Eben Upton and the RaspBerry Pi". The left sidebar contains a navigation menu with the following items: "Installing Python - Overview", "Recommended: Install Python - Windows 10", "Recommended: Using Python - Macintosh", "Optional: Python Installation", "Practice Peer-graded Assignment: Optional: Installing Python Screen Shots 1h", and "Bonus Materials". Under "Bonus Materials", there is a video titled "Video: Bonus: Eben Upton and the RaspBerry Pi" with a duration of 9 min. The main content area features a video player showing a photograph of a white mug with a Raspberry Pi logo, a Raspberry Pi board, and various electronic components on a wooden desk. Below the video player are buttons for "Save Note", "Discuss", and "Download". The bottom of the screen shows a Windows taskbar with various application icons and a system clock indicating 9:12 PM on 7/31/2020.
